

Application for funding support for author fees, for publishing in Open Access journals

By «author fees» is meant Article Processing Charge (APC), or similar fees, in Open Access journals. A condition for support is that the author is affiliated to VID Specialized University and that the university is stated as the author's address in the article. Please send the filled out application to: openaccess@vid.no.

Applicant's name: _____

Applicant's position: _____

Applicant's faculty/centre: _____

Is the applicant the corresponding author?

Yes

No, but another person affiliated to VID Specialized University is the corresponding author (please state name, position and faculty/centre in the field for additional information below)

No, the corresponding author is not affiliated to VID Specialized University, but will contribute with his/hers part of the author fees (please provide further information and justification in the field for additional information below)

Article title: _____

Journal: _____

The journal is available in DOAJ Yes ___ No (please explain in more detail below)

The journal is recognized Yes

Estimated amount in NOK (or possibly other currency): _____

Estimated date for payment of the amount: _____

The underlying research for the application is funded by external funding sources:

No

Yes, but the external funds doesn't cover the author fees. Please explain in detail below.

Additional information/justification:

I hereby confirm that the published article will be registered in CRISTIN with affiliation to VID Specialized University, and that the published version will be published in the university's open institutional repository VID:Open.

The application is discussed with, and endorsed by, local research director:

Yes

No (please provide explanation below)

Additional information:

Date and applicant's name: _____